

Product Configurator makes the clients Sales & Production process smooth since their end customer can choose the required variants to specify their final product need.

- ## WHO CAN USE IT?

- Build Sales Quotes and Order easily
- Auto Generate Production BOM & Routings
- Manage additional Charges

ADVANTAGES

- Work within the Microsoft Dynamics NAV environment
- All the references like quote and sales orders references are maintained
- Facility to view all the required information at various levels like parent, child items and their related quantities, their raw materials, charges etc
- Facilitates in the substitution of raw materials and provision to add additional charges

SPECIAL FEATURES

- Provide option to the user to use the configurator in the Sales Order process
- Option to Choose Printing Type based on the technology used, different kinds of colors to be used, etc. It also facilitates the user to change or remove different raw materials, if needed and add additional charges based on the options
- Once the Sales Order is verified and released, it allows the user to carry out all the processes related to the manufacturing of the items or Kits
- Additional provisions to assort the items and kit quantities based on the client's requirement since sometimes the client may not require certain items in the kit etc.
- Review all the information before the release of Sales Order in a user-friendly way
- Automate the Production Order creation and execution as per the standard Microsoft Dynamics NAV process with required